

Scrabble players compete in Stamford

July 24, 2016

Photo: Matthew Brown / Hearst Connecticut Media

IMAGE 3 OF 14

Buy Photo

Mack Meller of Bedford, New York, who is the #1 Kid Champion in the World for Scrabble, competes on the 2nd day of a 3-day Scrabble Tournament at the Stamford Marriot Hotel and Spa in Stamford, Conn. on July 23, 2016. Some 66 players from as far away as Dubai will challenge their word skills in a 16 game main event, with school children competing in a "Summer Fun School Scrabble" tournament. less

Dozens of Scrabble players of all skill levels and ages tested their vocabulary over the weekend at the Stamford Marriott Hotel and Spa during a three-day tournament. It was the second straight year the tournament was held in Stamford.